Dr. Eric L. Harris - Middle School Conductor

Eric L. Harris is the Associate Director of Bands at Tennessee Tech University in Cookeville. Prior to his appointment at TTU, he taught for twelve years in the public schools of Charlotte, North Carolina. During this time, his middle and high school bands earned numerous Superior ratings in concert and marching events across the state. In 1997, Dr. Harris was honored as one of twelve Time-Warner Star Teachers selected from over 6000 instructional staff in the Charlotte-Mecklenburg School System. Dr. Harris holds the B.M.E. degree from Winthrop University in Rock Hill, South Carolina, where he studied with Dr. William F. Malambri. He also holds the M.M.E. and D.M.A. degrees from the University of Southern Mississippi (in Hattiesburg) where he studied with Dr. Thomas V. Fraschillo.

Dr. Harris is an elected member of the American School Band Director's Association and has enjoyed teaching, conducting, and judging invitations in North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee, Kentucky, and Mississippi. Other professional affiliations include CBDNA, the National Band Association, and honorary membership in Kappa Kappa Psi.

He is the author of Fundamentals of Music Theory for the Windband Student – a three-volume music theory workbook series published by NorthLand Music Publishers. Most recently he served as a contributing author for Teaching Music Through Performance in Beginning Band, Volume Two.

Ronald D. Payne - High School Conductor

Ronald D. Payne received his initial music training in the Kings Mountain School System from Joe Hedden and Donald Deal. He received both his M.M.E. and B.M.E. degrees (cum laude) from East Carolina University where he studied euphonium with George Broussard and David Lewis and conducting with Robert Hause. In July of 2006 he retired with thirty-one years of credited service in the North Carolina Public Schools, most recently from Providence High School where he served as Director of Bands and Fine Arts Department Chair. Bands throughout his career have been consistent grade VI "Superior" bands. Under his baton, bands in 1987 and 2003 from two different high schools were selected as featured performers at the North Carolina Music Educators Association In-Service Conference. He was conferred the status of both Nationally Registered and Nationally Certified Music Educator by the Music Educators National Conference in September of 1991. Mr. Payne is active as a clinician, adjudicator and performer in the southeast and is a Past-President of the North Carolina Bandmasters Association. He has served many years and in numerous capacities on the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Music Educators Association, most recently for a two year term as a Member-At-Large. Peers have honored him by electing him as the State Chairman of the American School Band Director's Association and colleagues in NCBA awarded him the prestigious "Award of Excellence" for outstanding achievements and contributions to public school bands in 1993. Students have nominated him to Who's Who Among Teacher's consistently since its inception in 1990. In June of 2006, he received the prestigious "Citation of Excellence" from the National Band Association and in May of 2007 he was presented one of nineteen Star Teacher Awards for the Charlotte-Mecklenburg School System. He considers his selection by his peers to serve as this year's High School All-State Honors Band clinician to be the highlight of his career. In August of 2007, Mr. Payne received the appointment and is currently serving as Director of Upper School Bands at Charlotte Latin School in Charlotte, North Carolina and in December, 2007 he was named Latin's Music Department Chair. His professional memberships include: A.S.B.D.A., M.E.N.C., N.C.M.E.A., Phi Kappa Phi, Phi Kappa Lambda, and Phi Mu Alpha. He lives with his wife Gail in Matthews, NC.

W. Dale Warren - Senior High Conductor

W. Dale Warren is Director of Concert Bands and Professor of Music in the University of Arkansas Department of Music. Professor Warren's primary responsibility is conducting the University of Arkansas Wind Symphony. Professor Warren also teaches Junior, Senior, and Graduate level Music Education Courses, and is responsible for the Undergraduate and Graduate Instrumental Conducting Program. Professor Warren is the former Director of the University of Arkansas Razorback Marching Band (1991-2000).

Born in Greenville, Kentucky, Professor Warren attended Muhlenberg Central High School where he played euphonium for Joe Allen. Professor Warren received his Bachelor of Music Education degree from Austin Peay State University in Clarksville, Tennessee. He received his Master of Music Education degree from the University of Kentucky. Professor Warren is a former conducting student of Edward A. Knob, John Larkin, George Mabrey, W. Harry Clark, Skip Gray, Dennis Johnson, John Paynter, John Whitwell, and Larry Rachleff. Professor Warren also served on the music department faculty as Associate Director of Bands at the University of Kentucky from (1986-1991).

Professor Warren has taught in the public schools of Bremen High School in Bremen, Kentucky (1980-1982) and at North Hardin High School in Radcliff, Kentucky (1982-1986). While at Bremen and North Hardin, Mr. Warren's bands received numerous awards and Division I ratings. Professor Warren has guest conducted All-District, All-Region, and All-State honor bands, as well as several university bands in 35 states. Professor Warren has completed a faculty residency with the Kasetsart University Wind Symphony in Bangkok, Thailand. The Thailand residency included conducting rehearsals, teaching master classes and guest conducting a full concert program of all American composers. Professor Warren is a computer clinician/designer for Advantage Showare Inc., and Arrangers' Publishing Company. He also serves as an adjudicator for Musicfest Orlando and Music for All/Bands of America. Professor Warren serves as chairman of the John Philip Sousa Foundation's Sudler Shield Award Committee, is a John Philip Sousa Foundation Board Member, and is a Past President of the Southeastern Conference Band Directors Association.

Since Professor Warren arrived at the University of Arkansas, the University of Arkansas Wind Symphony has made special guest appearances at the College Band Directors National Association Convention on five separate occasions and was invited to perform again at the 2008 Conference held at the Kansas City Conservatory of Music. In addition, the UA Wind Symphony performed at world famous Carnegie Hall in New York City in 2000. The UA Wind Symphony has also performed at the Arkansas Music Educators Convention All-State Conference on two occasions under Professor Warren's baton. The UA Wind Symphony is featured with composer David Holsinger on a compact disc entitled "Holsinger I" and is featured on several TRN Music Publishers demonstration recordings.

Professor Warren's affiliations include: National Band Association, Phi Beta Mu Bandmasters Fraternity, Music Educators National Conference, College Band Directors National Association, World Association of Symphonic Bands and Ensembles, Conductors Guild, Arkansas Bandmasters Association, Arkansas Music Educators Association, Arkansas School Band and Orchestra Association, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, Kappa Kappa Psi, Tau Beta Sigma, and Pi Kappa Lambda.
