

General Reminders – NC Honors Band Clinic 2017

Be sure to read through all of the information, particularly the information regarding schedule, parking and lodging.

Included in the Registration Fee is the price of dinner on Friday and lunch on Saturday. Students will walk as a group to the location of this meal both days. Directors are responsible for transporting students for meals during other times. The clinic chairs would welcome any chaperone assistance during the meals from directors.

Concerning PERCUSSION: UNC-G will provide (a) four timpani, (b) one bass drum, (c) one xylophone, (d) one glockenspiel (bells), (e) one vibraphone, (f) one tam-tam, (g) one set of chimes, (h) one accessory table, (i) one set of four concert toms. This means that percussionists are responsible for bringing the following items: snare drum, cymbals, cymbal stand, triangle, tambourine, woodblock, claves, bass drum beaters, chime hammers, mallets, etc. CHECK YOUR PARTS BEFORE COMING TO REHEARSAL, particularly for things like Latin percussion instruments. Your Clinic Chair will assign parts on an assignment chart and provide a packing list for you. Bring what you need! Directors, please, PLEASE double check with your students before they come to UNCG to be sure they have all of the instruments they need.

If you have any students who will not be able to attend the clinic please notify the appropriate clinic chair as soon as possible. Students must attend the clinic the entire weekend.
