

Mr. Jeffrey B. Warner, 9-10 High School Conductor

Mr. Jeffrey Warner, USAF Ret. (BME, Florida State University; MBA, Cameron University, MA, Naval Postgraduate School) retired from the Air Force as a Lieutenant Colonel in 2016 after twenty years of service, and is an active guest conductor, consultant, and clinician at both the secondary and collegiate level in North Carolina, as well as providing professional development seminars for band directors. Since moving to the area upon his military retirement, he has expanded his writing contributions to include seven new band transcriptions, plus additional orchestral arrangements and original works.

Mr. Warner began his career in 1990 as a music educator, beginning as a high school band director in Central Florida, and then as a faculty member at Cypress Lake Center for the Arts in Ft. Myers, Fla.--teaching music theory, jazz theory, coaching chamber music, and conducting Wind Ensemble, Symphony Orchestra, and Musical Theater performances.

Entering the U.S. Air Force in 1996, he served as a professional career band officer and conductor in a series of associate conductor and commander assignments: Band of the USAF Reserve (Robins AFB, GA), US Air Forces in Europe Band (Germany), Pacific Air Forces Band (Elmendorf AFB, AK), the USAF Academy Band (Colorado Springs, CO), and the USAF Heritage of America Band (Langley AFB, VA)—using music to build relationships and communicate cooperation to both military and civilian audiences globally. His military experience includes ceremonial events across the United States, Europe, the United Kingdom and Japan, plus conducting performances and media appearances in multiple European nations, in addition to numerous concerts and media events in the United States--including a November 2011 appearance at the North Carolina Music Educators convention.
