CONCERT ATTIRE and CHANGING INFORMATION for STUDENTS and PARENTS

Do not bring luggage, garment bags, etc. into the auditorium. You may not change clothes at the auditorium. You must arrive in concert attire and leave in concert attire.

Middle school students should plan to come to the dress rehearsal wearing their concert attire. All high school students may change following their dress rehearsal at your hotel but may not bring luggage into Stevens Center

Concert Attire for men is a dark dress pant, a white shirt and a tie (coat optional but suggested) and for the women either a dark color dress or nice dark dress pants and a blouse. Many students may choose to wear formal concert attire “concert black” which would consist of a tuxedo for the gentlemen and either an all black dress or black dress and black blouse for the ladies. Formal concert black is not required but permissible.

PARKING INFORMATION for PARENTS

There is a parking deck next to the Stevens Center as well as free parking on the streets around 4th Street

MEAL INFORMATION for STUDENTS

For dinner on Friday and lunch on Saturday all students will have a meal ticket and be escorted by the Clinic Chair to the UNCG Dining Hall. This is paid for as a part of your clinic fee. Students will walk to the UNCG Dining Hall at staggered times on Friday for dinner and again on Saturday for lunch. Each student will receive these meal tickets from the Clinic Chair for their band just prior to the meal.

Breakfast on Saturday morning and Dinner on Saturday night is the responsibility of the student and director.

HOUSING INFORMATION for STUDENTS, PARENTS, and DIRECTORS

All students are to be housed in area hotels (a list is provided on the NCBA website). Directors will make hotel reservations and make arrangements for transportation to and from the campus. Directors are responsible for registering students at the Honors Band Clinic and bringing all necessary payments and requested documents. Directors are also responsible for chaperoning and supervising their students, in person, for the entire weekend.

Parents may not register students for the North Carolina Honors Band Clinic or supervise students in place of their band director throughout the weekend.
