

DUKE UNIVERSITY'S FIRST ANNUAL

Celebrate the Music JAZZ FESTIVAL

CELEBRATING THE MUSIC OF
FRANK FOSTER
MARCH 23 - 28, DURHAM NC

You're Invited To:

HIGH SCHOOL JAZZ ENSEMBLE ADJUDICATION EVENT

FRIDAY, MARCH 26TH, NOON-6PM

BALDWIN AUDITORIUM, DUKE EAST CAMPUS, DURHAM NC

45-minute session includes: 20 minute performance,
25 minute hands-on adjudication session and workshop.

Requirements/Resources:

Each ensemble is requested to perform one Frank Foster arrangement.
Free copies and parts are available from Duke University Jazz Archives, where the complete
Frank Foster papers are held.

Fee: A $100 adjudication fee is required from each ensemble.

Adjudicators:

John Brown, director of Duke Jazz Studies
2 additional distinguished musicians, TBA.
Frank Foster will be in attendance, and may have additional comments for ensembles.

Campus Tour Availability

Duke University office of admissions will offer three 45-minute information sessions at its
West Campus office for students interested in learning more about Duke University
(transportation provided via Duke bus service).

Contact: Daniel Raimi, 718-300-2510, dpr2@duke.edu

Additional Festival Events:

3/23: Introduction to improvisation workshop; Opening night gala.

3/24: Panel discussion on improvisation; Open Rehearsal of Duke Jazz Ensemble;
Jazz Jam at the Mary Lou Williams Center

3/25: Listening session with Frank Foster and John Brown; Evening concert

3/26: High school jazz ensemble adjudication event; Evening concert.

3/27: Afternoon concert; Evening concert with Duke Jazz Ensemble and special guest.

3/28: Jazz brunch at Washington Duke hotel.