MEAL INFORMATION for STUDENTS

For dinner on Friday and lunch on Saturday, all students will have a meal ticket and be escorted by the Clinic Chair to the UNCG Dining Hall. This is paid for as a part of your clinic fee. Students will walk to the UNCG Dining Hall at staggered times on Friday for dinner and again on Saturday for lunch. Each student will receive these meal tickets from the Clinic Chair for their band just prior to the meal.

Breakfast on Saturday morning and dinner on Saturday night is the responsibility of the student and director, as are meals on Sunday.

HOUSING INFORMATION

All students are to be housed in area hotels (a list is provided on the NCBA website). Directors will make hotel reservations and make arrangements for transportation to and from the campus. Directors are responsible for registering students at the Honors Band Clinic and bringing all necessary payments and requested documents. Directors are also responsible for chaperoning and supervising their students, in person, for the entire weekend.

Parents may not register students for the North Carolina Honors Band Clinic or supervise students in place of their band director throughout the weekend.
